...if it's worth doing, it's worth doing right.

We are unique among the many Internet companies selling Trade Show Booths online as a commodity. Satisfied clients in diverse industries from across the nation send us testimonial letters that we have posted on our website. Visit our site and read for yourself what they have to say. The professional design services we offer enable you make your next trade show display a sound investment and a resounding success! Our highest quality, photographically produced graphics are thermal laminated and will never peel or bubble, guaranteed!

Best of all, when you purchase a Trade Show Display from us, you're sure to get you noticed! Throughout the Image Design family of companies, the quality of our graphic design and production services lets any type of trade show exhibit system you purchase deliver your message with the professional look you need to succeed on the show floor.

Our Trade Show Booths will meet your marketing needs, and provide you with a lightweight and easy to set up system. We also specialize in Custom Modular Trade Show Booths, visit www.imagedesigncom.com.
